RECOVERING LIVES
RESTORING FAMILIES.

The Substance Abuse Treatment Program philosophy is a holistic one which believes in providing services and/or referrals to accommodate the needs of the total person. Abstinence is the primary goal of our department unless during the assessment process other special needs of the client preempt this goal, such as, client is dually diagnosed.

Edgewater's Addiction Services at Turning Point offers a variety of services to people 18 and older who are suffering from addictions. Our programs provide support to the client and their families to promote recovery.

At The Turning Point Center we provide treatment for substance and drug abuse through our abstinence-based outpatient and intensive outpatient treatment programs. Our service options include individual, family, and group counseling and treatment for:

- Alcohol and narcotic addiction
- Cocaine and opiate addiction
- DUI program services

The New Life Center, located within Turning Point, serves as a methadone maintenance treatment center for persons struggling with opiate addiction. The program includes individual and group counseling as a comprehensive approach to recovery.

DUAL-DIAGNOSIS TREATMENT FOR MENTAL HEALTH AND SUBSTANCE ABUSE PROBLEMS

If someone you know has an alcohol or drug abuse problem, it can seem like a huge issue in and of itself. Yet many individuals who have substance abuse problems also have underlying mental health issues. In fact, the presence of a dual-diagnosed problem is more the rule than the exception.

TREATMENT FOR DUAL-DIAGNOSIS & CO-OCCURRING DISORDERS

Edgewater is a recognized leader among behavioral health care providers in offering substance abuse treatment, as well as treatment for individuals that are dually diagnosed.

With years of treatment experience, our professional staff provides you with the individualized care needed to treat dual-diagnosed problems to ensure lasting recovery. Our treatment plans are designed to address an individual's substance abuse and mental health problems at the same time, in the same program, by the same well-trained treatment team.

THE PROBLEM

It's very common for people addicted to drugs, alcohol, and gambling to believe that they don't have a problem.

THE FAMILY

The family will often have concerns about a potential problem, but the addicted person is very skilled at convincing them that there is nothing to be concerned about.

IT WON'T GO AWAY

Without help, it's likely that the addiction will escalate, affecting their life and the lives of others close to them.

THE ANSWER

The experienced, professional staff at Edgewater and a full continuum of addictions services, helping people break free from their substance dependence and regain control of their lives.

WHEN THE TIME COMES

A person suffering from an addiction will usually reach a point when they realize that their life is spinning out of control. Sometimes they will come to this realization on their own. Other times, the people affected by their addiction will reach out. Regardless of how it happens, it is a pivotal time in their lives. When the time comes for you or someone you love to seek help, let Edgewater be your choice to help recovery begin.
